Jury May Be Called.

Politicians Still Believe No More ier of the Brooklyn Excise Department, Cases Will Be Pushed.

Deputy Attorney-General Jerry A. Wernberg told an "Evening World" re-porter in Brooklyn this morning that more indictments against persons who had violated the election laws in Kings County would be asked for just as soon as the trials of those now under indictment were completed.

Mr. Wernberg also stated that by the last of the present week the prosecutors of the Gravesend offenders would decide whether to call an Extraordinary Whether to can an Extraordinary Grand Jury for the month of June.

The rumor that there had been a deal effected between Deputy Attorney-Gen-eral Edward M. Shepard and "Boss" McLaughlin by which further prosecu-tion of election cases in Brooklyn was to be dropped, was denied by Mr. Wern-berg.

and have had the freedom of the jail yard.

The case of John Y. McKane, now serving six years in Sing Sing, will be appealed at the General Term of the Supreme Court, in Poughkeepsie, next month, Lawyer George W. Roderick is now at work on the papers.

From another source this morning it was learned that the reason a May Grand Jury was not called was because Lawyer Shepard and his associates have been trying to work up evidence against the persons who attempted to bribe the McKane and Sutherland juries. If the June Grand Jury is called, it is stated, the bribery cases will be placed before that body for consideration, which may result in the indictment of a well-known Republican-Democratic politician and contractor

"I will be glad to get back," he is reported to have said, and then added rather significantly, "but there will be a lot of people in New York who will be sorry to see me. That's all I'll say."

It was learned to-day that Lonmann a few weeks ago had written to his wife asking her to see his bondsmen and learn whether it would be safe for him to return.

His wife saw Conrad Dietrick, who was on his bond, who advised Lohmann to come home. Subsequently Lohmann to come home. Subsequently Lohmann wrote to his aunt, Mrs. Fritz Endres, the widow of his other bondsman, saying he wished to return.

"I cannot say what cases will be taken up. The first work is to get through with trials now on the callendar."

Notwithstanding Mr. Wernberg's statement, however, there are a number of politicians who are of the opinion that further prosecutions will be dropped, and that there will be no Extraordinary Grand Jury for June.

Some time ago Mr. Shepard stated in court that a new jury would be called for May, but nothing further a first terred in court that a new jury would be called for May, but nothing further a freed of "The World," in a recent letter, charsed that John Y. McKane was sent to prison for following the advice of "Boss" McLaughlin, who is on friendly terms with Mr. Shepard not to proceed further in the election cases. Nobody could be found to verify the statements. Mr. Wernberg said they were ridiculous.

To-morrow four of the Gravesend election inspectors who aided John Y. McKane will have served their sentence of twenty-inine days. They are W. H. Stewart, W. I. Tuthill, J. F. The improvement inspectors are paid by the Commission to protect the city from any defective work which the contractor might folst upon the taxpayers. Only two of them, Edward McDonnld and ex-Overseer of the Poor Flanagan, are skilled laborers. The remaining nine-teen, being mainly recruited from the ranks of saloon-keepers, bartenders, expolicemen and race track touts, are not much of a check on Contractor Sheehan's methods of building sewers.

The taxpayers allege that the appointment of this class of inspectors might have something to do with the fact that Contractor Sheehan took the Harris avenue sewer at a much lower figure than that of any other bidder.

The present Improvement Commission consists of William H. Williams, Public Works Commissioner; Henry W. Sharkey, Michael F. Clavin, Alderman Joseph McGee and Benjamin Wingrove.

The sheeting was shipped to Zanzibar, Africa, in the bark George Ropes. The Ropes was shipwrecked July 4, 1893, and part of the cargo lost; $37,000 was realized on that part of the cargo which was saved. This money Arbuthnot, Leden & Co. say, has never been paid them.
